From the Pastors Desk

"A Shepdogs Tale"

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. "The Lord is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him." Lamentations 3:22-24 NRSV

Happy New Year! It seems like yesterday that I sat at this desk to write a note about the new year in 2019, it couldn't be more than a few weeks ago, could it? The calendar tells me that my perception does not coincide with the reality of the day. The year of our Lord 2019 is past. The New Year 2020 spreads out before us full of hope and challenges.

A year ago, I wrote encouraging people to look ahead to the year 2020 and seek a vision for different areas of our lives to work on. I targeted specific areas of my physical, spiritual and financial life and prayerfully set goals for each area. I then made a plan to address each area, planning for a better 2020. I visited with a friend last week about this process and he said with a wry smile, "I planned to save $1,000.00 dollars in 2019 – only $1,500.00 to go to meet the goal!"

I have to admit, I have had mixed results as well. While I have made progress in each area towards the goals I set I am not where I need to be. On top of that, I see new areas that need attention! Thanks be to God for these words of encouragement and hope provided by our loving creator, "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. "The Lord is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him." Lamentations 3:22-24 NRSV

I invite you to join me in a fresh attempt at achieving some of these 2020 visions. What is the Lord calling on you to address and improve upon this year? Don't be afraid or disappointed. We will walk together and celebrate each improvement and work on each need.

One of my favorite hymns is John Newton's famous "Amazing Grace". John Newton had been Captain of a slave ship who, after his conversion to Christianity became an abolitionist and pastor. I am encouraged by Newton's realization that this journey of faith never ends. I have printed this quote from Newton and I offer it to you here in the New Year.

"I am not what I ought to be, I am not what I want to be, I am not what I hope to be in another world; but still I am not what I once used to be!"

As we change our calendars to 2020, come and join us as we seek to set a new vision for this new adventure – let's work together to begin to imagine the best that God might have for us as individuals, as families and as a congregation. Come and join us for worship this Sunday at 9:00 or 10:30 A.M. - we'll save you a seat!

In Grace and Peace, Pastor Bill Mudge

CONGREGATIONAL CARE & FAMILY MINISTRIES

Just like the magi, we're traveling for Epiphany!

Epiphany

Join us on Sunday, January 5 as we celebrate Epiphany at Syracuse Home at 3:00 p.m. It will be an intergenerational worship of word and song that will include storytelling, celebration of many traditions, and a musical recital. If you sing, enjoy reading out loud, or play an instrument, please join us for this special day on the road spreading the good news of Jesus Christ!

A Year of Blessing

Dear friends,

It has been such a blessing to minister with you! Words cannot express what a holy privilege it is to serve in this way, extending God's love and sharing the congregations' care with people at some of their most vulnerable times. Perhaps the most meaningful and the most difficult is walking with our families during times of grief. As 2019 comes to a close we continue to lift up the lives of the saints who have gone before us; and hold in our prayers those who grieve their loss. I look forward to our time together in 2020 and wish you every blessing in the new year.

Yours in Christ,
Jeff Hodge (315-383-4384)

Congregational Care and visitation are an important part of ministering to and with one another. While I coordinate some of our care, many others provide vital ministry, including but not limited to our Cheery Visitors and the Hands of Hope Team. These ministries, led and cared for mainly by laity of the church, are a reflection of Christ's love for us, and an extension of the church's work in the world.

I appreciate the work that each of you does and remind you that a card, an e-mail, a phone call, and a brief visit mean the world to people, particularly at their most vulnerable. I also want to remind you that a one-on-one visit, while nice, isn't always practical. Folks in the hospital may appreciate a quick phone call or note, rather than a personal visit at a time when they are resting or testing. If you do visit, especially in the hospital, keep it brief; and refrain if you have or are coming down with a cold.

If you have a pastoral need or would desire a pastoral call/visit, please call me at 315-383-4384 or let the office know.

Blessings and Peace, Jeff

Read the Bible in a Year

Dedicated to Tom McMahon who started this wonderful way of staying connected every day through the year.

“RENEW A GOOD HABIT ... Daily Bible Reading. Sometimes it’s hard to get into the habit of reading the Bible. Here is an easy way to get started. Just pick up a copy of the 2019 Daily Reading Guide. They are in the back of the sanctuary, in the Chapel, outside the church office and inside the church office. You should be able to find one. The guide will lead you through reading the whole Bible in a year. Now that’s a GOOD HABIT.”
